HOW TO COME DOWN

The Syringe

Hyaluronic acid — the star product

ANCHOR	ANDORRA PRICE	MINIMUM
€500	€300	€100

€500 Europe Price Anchor ANCHOR

"In our shops in Europe this goes for €500 — but here in Andorra we have a much better price for you."

€300 Andorra Price NORMAL

"Here it is only €300."

€210 Offer 1 — 30% Off + Free Gift OFFER

Offer 1 of 2. It never goes out on its own — Option B goes with it, always the same two.

"Right now we have an amazing offer — 30% off, so €210 instead of €300, and you still choose a gift: Day Cream, Night Cream or the Peeling."

€300 Option B — Second Syringe Free OPTION B — BESIDE, NOT BELOW

2 × €150

Option B, beside Offer 1 — never below it. It is €300, MORE than the €210. You have been reading her all through the demo: if she reads well, push this one, and pile gifts on it — you are still miles above your minimum. The way down is for the customer who genuinely cannot reach it.

"Or — and this is the one most people take — you pay the normal €300 and you walk out with TWO syringes. The second one is free: forehead, upper lip, the frown lines between your eyebrows. That is €150 each instead of €210 for one, and I'll put the Day and Night Cream in as well. Which one do you want?"

€175 Adaptive — Gift Removed OFFER

"Let me take the gift out of the deal and I can do €175 for the syringe on its own."

€140 Voucher Close — 20% Off

VOUCHER — ONCE ONLY

Say it while you start her OTHER EYE — hands busy, face tilted up. One voucher, once. There is no second one.

"You know what, let me fix your other eye real quick. START IT ... Listen, I have a 20% voucher here and I'll do it for you. But you are being greedy now, eh? €175 down to €140 — the syringe on its own, no gift, and only while you are sitting in front of me."

€100 Absolute Minimum

MINIMUM

FETCH HIM. Full market first, then go — it lands from him, never from you.

"Give me ten seconds, I'll see what I can do for you."

GO AND GET THE MANAGER. €100 is the lowest this ever goes, and it has to come out of his mouth. Say it yourself and she hears a price that was always there; make him walk over for it and she hears a price you went and got her.

PROOF MOVE — ONE EYE ONLY, AND THE OTHER ONE IS THE CLOSE

"Let me do one eye only — then you hold the mirror and tell me if you see the difference." You never do the second one for free: it comes out at €175 as the cover for the voucher, or after she has paid.

- One voucher, ONCE: €175 down to €140. There is no second voucher — inventing another one tells her the first was invented too.
- The voucher comes out while you are doing her other eye, and BEFORE she can see the result. The mirror comes last, after the price.
- For €100: full market, then go and fetch the manager. You are allowed to sell at that price — what fetching him buys is that it sounds like a price somebody had to go and win, not one that was always there.
- Option B is not a step down. It sits BESIDE Offer 1, always the same two, and it is the one you push if she reads well.
